

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Erasmus Mayr

Academic Training

- 1999–2003 M.Phil. in Philosophy, Logic and Philosophy of Science, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität (LMU) Munich.
- 2000–2005 Law, LMU Munich, 1st State Exam, 2005.
- 2005–2007 Ph.D., Philosophy, LMU Munich (Ph.D. thesis on human action and agent causation).
- 2005/2006 Graduate Visiting Student, Oxford University.
- 2007–2009 Practical law course/legal clerkship (Referendariat) at the Landgericht München I (regional law court); 2nd State Exam 2009.
- 2015 Venia legendi, Philosophy, LMU Munich (Habilitation thesis on moral responsibility and the foundations of moral obligation).

Academic Employment

- 2006–2011 Scientific assistant (Wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter) at LMU Munich (first part-time in a DFG-funded project on paternalism in law and ethics; later full-time at the Institute for Philosophy, Chair I).
- 2011–2014 Junior Research Fellow, The Queen's College Oxford.
- 2014–2015 Researcher, 'Metaphysics of Entanglement' project, Oxford University.
- 2014–2015 Interim professor (Lehrstuhlvertretung) at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin.
- Since 2015 professor in philosophy at FAU, since 2016 holding Chair for Practical Philosophy.

Awards

- 2009 Wolfgang-Stegmüller-Preis (Gesellschaft für Analytische Philosophie).
- 2021 Deutscher Preis für Philosophie.

Areas of Specialization

Systematic: Philosophy of action; moral philosophy, with a special focus on foundational questions in ethics and meta-ethics; political philosophy and philosophy of law.

Historical: Kant and Wittgenstein